

Bread & Roses Labor Series

Labor Notes Book Party

Wednesday, March 5

Busboys & Poets
1025 5th St. NW
Washington, DC

6:30pm - 8pm

How to Jump-Start Your Union -- the latest Labor Notes book -- tells how activists transformed their union and gave members hope. Readers will learn how to run for office, work with their communities, build stewards networks, train new leaders, run a contract campaign, and strike.

PLUS: hear from Washington Teachers Union President Elizabeth Davis about local teacher struggles!

Free and open to all!

Bread & Roses is a monthly labor series that features a variety of events focused on workers and organized labor.

For more information, contact Julia at
(718) 284-4144 or julia@labornotes.org

