

D.C. LABOR NOTES

TROUBLEMAKERS SCHOOL

NOV. 15

Budget cuts, union-busting, privatization, and corporate outsourcing schemes are wreaking havoc on working people in the DC Metro Area and worldwide. We need a strong, fighting labor movement to take on these anti-worker attacks.

Labor activists in the DC Metro Area are planning a day of skill-building workshops, education, and strategy discussions to strengthen the local labor movement with rank-and-file worker power!

WORKSHOPS & PANELS TO INCLUDE:

- Fighting Privatization
- Talking to Coworkers About the Union
- Beating Apathy
- Community-Labor Alliances
- Alternatives to Picket Lines
- Know Your Rights
- Organizing Independent Contractors
- ... And More!

SAT. NOVEMBER 15, 2014 | 8 AM – 4 PM

FOUNDRY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

1500 16th St. NW, Wash. D.C.

(Nearest Metro: Dupont Circle – Red Line)

$20 Registration • Free Lunch & Childcare Provided

NO ONE TURNED AWAY FOR LACK OF FUNDS

TO REGISTER, GO TO

www.labornotes.org/events/2014/metro-dc-troublemakers-school

Like Us: www.facebook.com/dmvtroublemakers

For more info on event and group discounts or scholarships, email julia@labornotes.org

SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

Metro Washington Council, AFL-CIO; DC Jobs with Justice

