

Vermont Troublemakers School 2014

Photo: Vermont Workers Center

Sunday, November 9

10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

University of Vermont

Rowell Hall
106 Carrigan Drive
Burlington

Join us for a day of discussion, training, networking, and inspiration!

New strategies centered on social justice unionism have animated recent struggles—from the 2012 Chicago Teachers strike to the recent Teamster Chittenden County Transit Authority walkout in Vermont.

We'll discuss rank-and-file strategies for advancing our unions and demanding our rights.

Workshop themes include...

- How to have an organizing conversation
- How to broaden member participation
- Reviving social justice unionism
- Developing rank-and-file leaders
- Winning contract campaigns
- Strikes and other worksite actions
- And much more

Organizations whose members are helping build this event include... Vermont State Employees Association, CCTA Teamster Bus Drivers, Vermont Workers Center, United Academics at UVM, Vermont Nurses and Healthcare Professionals (VNHP), VT-NEA teachers, International Socialist Organization, UE Locals in Chittenden and Washington Counties, Vermont Migrant Justice, Home Health Care Workers, Howard Center AFSCME Local 1674, Green Mountain Labor Council, and more to come.

Register at labornotes.org/vermont

or call Traven Leyshon, 802-522-3484, Traven.L@gmail.com.
Childcare will be available. Visit website for details.

Sponsored by United Academics at UVM.